The Love of God

God commended his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

Herein is love, not that we love God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.

Now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that when he shall appear, we shall be like him.

If God be for us, who can be against us?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
